

TASC WINNERS' CIRCLE

Winners' Circle is a peer-led, peer-driven support group designed to help formerly incarcerated men and women who are in recovery from alcohol or drug problems. Each circle provides a positive social setting, encouragement, and support for its members as they journey toward long-term recovery. Membership is open to formerly incarcerated individuals as well as their families, friends, and allies.

Winners' Circle meetings are open to the public and take place throughout Illinois. Times and locations of the meetings may change. Please call location beforehand.
